RBC Bank Deposit Program – FDIC Insured Cash Sweep Program

The RBC Bank Deposit Program (BDP) sweeps cash in client accounts into interest-bearing accounts at multiple Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)-insured banks offering an aggregated total of $2,500,000 in FDIC-insurance coverage ($5 million for accounts held jointly by two or more persons).

Benefits of the RBC Bank Deposit Program:

- This program is ideal for clients who wish to earn interest on their cash but who place a high priority on the safety of principal.
- The RBC Bank Deposit Program sweeps cash into interest-bearing accounts at FDIC-insured banks that RBC has thoroughly reviewed; only creditworthy banks participate in the program.
- You can maintain deposits in multiple banks with up to $2,500,000 aggregate FDIC insurance coverage, and you have the ability to exclude certain banks from receiving your deposits.
- You don't have to manage relationships with multiple banks. RBC does it for you. In addition, RBC reports cash balance held at each bank, the interest rate and the Annual Percentage Yield Earned (APYE) on each client statement.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person, and
4. The FATCA codes (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

By entering your name below, you signify that you have read, met, and agreed to all terms and conditions above.

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

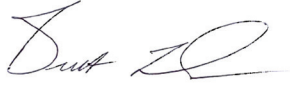

You may cross out this entire Substitute W-9 Certification section if you are not a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person. In such case, an appropriate Form W-8 must be submitted.

I certify that the above information is correct. I appoint RBC Capital Markets, LLC as Custodian in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Individual Retirement Custodial Agreement and consent to the Custodian's fees in the fee schedule. The fees are subject to change upon notice to the Account Owner. I acknowledge receipt of a copy of the plan document under which this Individual Retirement Account is established, a copy of this Adoption Agreement, and a copy of the Disclosure Statement with respect to this Individual Retirement Account. I direct the Custodian to invest available uninvested cash balances of my account on a daily basis in a money market fund. I direct all benefits upon my death be paid as indicated above. In the event that this is a rollover contribution, I irrevocably elect, pursuant to the requirements of 1.402(a)(5)-IT of the IRS regulations, to treat this contribution as a rollover contribution. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS A PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION CLAUSE AT ARTICLE 8 OF THE INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT CUSTODIAL AGREEMENT AND PAGE 3 OF THIS ADOPTION AGREEMENT.

CLIENT FORM COMPLETION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Read carefully the accompanying Custodial Traditional IRA Agreement and Disclosure. (Capitalized terms in the IRA Adoption Agreement have the same meanings as in the IRA Agreement and Disclosure Statement.)
2. Complete or correct Sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, if applicable.
3. Complete additional forms if indicated by the box in Section 2.
4. Keep the client copy and the IRA Agreement and Disclosure Statement for your records.
5. Return the original document in the envelope provided.

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION RULES OF INTERPRETATION

1. Primary Beneficiaries. Unless the Account Owner (“Owner”) otherwise specifies, the Account will be paid in equal shares to the primary Beneficiary or Beneficiaries who survive the Owner. If the Owner specifies percentage (or fractional) shares for the primary Beneficiaries and if some but not all such Beneficiaries fail to survive the Owner, the Account will be divided among the surviving primary Beneficiaries in proportion to the relative percentage (or fractional) shares of each, unless the owner has stipulated a Per Stirpes designation.
2. Contingent Beneficiaries. If no primary Beneficiary survives the Owner, the Account will be paid in equal shares (unless otherwise specified in the Beneficiary designation) to the contingent Beneficiary or Beneficiaries who survive the Owner, following the rule in paragraph (1) above.
3. Death Before Full Distribution. Unless the Owner has otherwise specified in the Beneficiary designation, the Beneficiary will become fixed as of the Owner’s death so that, if a Beneficiary survives the Owner but dies before the receipt of all amounts due such Beneficiary, the remaining amounts will be payable to the representative of the Beneficiary’s estate or to one or more Beneficiaries designated by such Beneficiary.
4. Designation by Relationship Only. Any designation of a Beneficiary only by statement of relationship to the Owner (or Beneficiary) will be effective only to designate the person or persons standing in such relationship at the Owner’s (or Beneficiary’s) death.

If no Beneficiary designation is in force at the time of the Owner’s death, the Beneficiary shall be the spouse of the Owner. If there is no living spouse, the Beneficiary shall be the Owner’s estate.

AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE CONTROVERSIES

This agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement the parties agree as follows:

- All parties to this agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party’s ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
- The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration in some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this agreement.

The Client agrees that any controversy arising out of or relating directly or indirectly to this Agreement, or any investment by the Client hereunder, or with respect to transactions of any kind executed by or with RBC Capital Markets, LLC (“RBC CM”), Member NYSE/ FINRA/SIPC, any introducing broker for the Account (if applicable), or each of their respective officers, directors, agents, employees, or affiliate, or with respect to this Agreement or any other agreements entered in to with RBC CM or the introducing broker (if applicable) relating to the Accounts with RBC CM or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act and in accordance with the rules, then in effect, of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Notice preliminary to, in conjunction with or incident to arbitration, may be sent to the Client by mail and personal service is hereby waived. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any predispute arbitration against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (i) the request for class certification is denied; (ii) the class is decertified; or (iii) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING To help our country fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, physical address, date of birth and other information that will allow us the ability to identify you. We may also ask for a copy of your driver's license, passport or other identifying documents.

RBC CORRESPONDENT SERVICES (RBC CS), a division of RBC Capital Markets, LLC, Member NYSE/FINRA/SIPC

In order to better service your financial needs our firm has engaged an independent member of the New York Stock Exchange and other major exchanges as our Clearing Agent. Accordingly, your account and all regulations governing it may fall within the control of both firms pursuant to a written agreement between the Clearing Agent and us. Under this agreement, the Clearing Agent will: provide cashiering services; monitor compliance of credit according to applicable rules, regulations and policies; prepare or provide information for transaction confirmations and periodic account statements; and provide for the dissemination of proxy, tender offer, and other similar shareholder's materials. In addition, the Clearing Agent may provide, upon our specific instructions, order execution and/or certificate clearance. However, the Clearing Agent will not be involved with or have responsibility for decisions regarding transactions in your account. While you continue to be a customer of our firm, the opening and approval of accounts and the entry of orders and instructions regarding the deposit or withdrawal of securities or money for your account must be handled by us. We will continue to be responsible for all activities in connection with your account and inquiries regarding your account should be directed to us. Information about our Clearing Agent is available upon request.

SEC ORDER HANDLING DISCLOSURE - SEC Rule 606 As adopted in November 2000, SEC Rule 606 requires all broker dealers that route orders in equity and option securities to make available quarterly reports that present a general overview of their routing practices. As stated above, Spratt Global Resource Investments Ltd. (Spratt Global) is an introducing broker dealer. Transactions effected by Spratt Global are executed and settled through our Clearing Agent, RBC CS, a division of RBC Capital Markets Corp., and also through third party broker dealers. Being that RBC CS makes the routing decisions concerning the customer orders routed through them without regard to the identity of Spratt Global as its introducing broker dealer, Spratt Global feels that RBC CS is in the best position to prepare a quarterly report that reflects its routing practices on our behalf. You can review RBC CS' SEC Order Handling Disclosures at: <http://external.s3.com/rule606/rbcwm/>. For historical information, visit <http://www.tagaudit.com/do/display?page=Rule606::Report>.

PROHIBITED ACCOUNTS Pursuant to US regulations issued under Section 311 of the USA PATRIOT Act, 31 CFR 103.192, we prohibit customers from establishing, maintaining, administering or managing an account for, or on behalf of the financial institutions listed under this section: http://www.fincen.gov/statutes_regs/patriot/section311.html. The regulations also require us to notify you that your correspondent account with our firm may not be used to provide the financial institutions listed under Section 311 with access to our firm. If we become aware that these institutions are indirectly using the correspondent account you hold at our firm, we will be required to take appropriate steps to prevent such access, including terminating your account.

BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLANNING Spratt Global has developed a Business Continuity Plan (BCP) on how we will respond to events that significantly disrupt our business. Since the timing and impact of disasters and disruptions is unpredictable, we will have to be flexible in responding to actual events as they occur. With that in mind, we are providing you with this information on our plan.

Contacting Us If after a significant business disruption you cannot contact us as you usually do at 800-477-7853 or 760-444-5254, you should call our emergency number 773-209-4777, alternative fax 760-683-6578 or go to our website at www.sprattglobal.com.

Our Business Continuity Plan We plan to quickly recover and resume business operations after a significant business disruption and respond by safeguarding our employees and property, making a financial and operational assessment protecting the firm's books and records, and allowing our customers to transact business. In short, our BCP is designed to permit our firm to resume operations as quickly as possible, given the scope and severity of the significant business disruption.

Our BCP addresses: data backup and recovery; all mission critical systems; financial and operational assessments; alternative communications with customers, employees, and regulators; alternate physical location of employees; critical supplier, contractor, bank and counter-party impact; regulatory reporting; and assuring our customers prompt access to their funds and securities if we are unable to continue our business. Our clearing firm, RBC Capital Markets, LLC, backs up our important records in a geographically separate area. While every emergency situation poses unique problems based on external factors, such as time of day and the severity of the disruption, we have been advised by our clearing firm that its objective is to restore its own operations and be able to complete existing transactions and accept new transactions and payments within the same business day. Your orders and requests for funds and securities could be delayed during this period.

Varying Disruptions Significant business disruptions can vary in their scope, such as only our firm, a single building housing our firm, the business district where our firm is located, the city where we are located, or the whole region. Within each of these areas, the severity of the disruption can also vary from minimal to severe. In a disruption to only our firm or a building housing our firm, we will transfer our operations to a local site when needed and expect to recover and resume business within few hours. In a disruption affecting our business district, city, or region, we will transfer our operations to a site outside of the affected area, and expect to recover and resume business within the same business day. In either situation, we plan to continue in business, transfer critical operations to our parent company Sprott Inc., as necessary, and provide information through our web site www.sprottglobal.com, including contract and critical transaction processing information. If the significant business disruption is so severe that it prevents us from returning to business within a reasonable period of time, or ever, we will take all necessary actions to assure our customer's prompt access to their funds and securities.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT By entering into this Agreement, you agree that all controversies between Sprott Global or our principals or agents and you or your agents arising out of or concerning your accounts, orders or transactions, or the construction, performance, or breach of this or any other agreement between us, whether entered into before or after the date an account is opened shall be determined by arbitration before FINRA.

You also represent that you understand the terms of the arbitration clauses as follows:

- a. Arbitration is final and binding on the parties.
- b. The parties are waiving their right to seek remedies in court, including the right to jury trials, but not the right to counsel.
- c. Pre-arbitration discovery is generally more limited than and different from court proceedings.
- d. The arbitrators' award is not required to include factual findings or legal reasoning and the parties' right to appeal or seek modifications of rulings by the arbitrators is strictly limited.
- e. The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.

Notice preliminary to, in conjunction with, or incident to arbitration may be sent to you by mail, and personal service is waived. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action, who is a member of a putative class, who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until the class certification is denied, the class is decertified, or the customer is excluded from the class by court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, and shall inure to the benefit of Sprott Global's successors and assigns, and shall be binding on the undersigned, the undersigned's representatives, attorneys in-fact, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns. The undersigned has read and accepted the terms of this Agreement.
